

Retaining Drivers

Everybody's talking about it, but what can you do to keep drivers productive, safe, and working for you? Fact is, most converter dollies can be a burden to your drivers. Consider:

- ◆ It's an extra piece of equipment
 - ◆ Most times, dollies are handled manually, and
 - ◆ Often under adverse conditions
 - ◆ Many are heavy, difficult to maneuver and neglected
 - ◆ The dolly is the steering axle of your 2nd/3rd trailer

So what can you do? Plenty — here are some solutions:

- ◆ Lighten the dolly's weight
- ◆ Counterbalance the tongue weight
- ◆ Use wide single tires like Michelin's X One®
- ◆ Roadside hookups
- ◆ "Stand up" fifth wheel check
- ◆ "No reach" fifth wheel release

This makes a HUGE difference - call us for the video!

The good news — all of these benefits are available today in Silver Eagle's Eagle VA dolly.

It's a Driver Retention program...

It's a Safety program...

It's a Cost Reduction program...

"Your mom could move this dolly around the yard..."
Eagle VA Customer

Yours for the asking.

Work with the dolly specialist — call Silver Eagle.

1-800-547-6792

5825 NE Skyport Way – Portland, OR 97218 (800) 547-6792 Fax: (503) 335-2171

Michael King – VP, Sales and Marketing – Direct Phone: (503) 335-2143 Alyson Bennett – Sales Coordinator – Direct Phone: (503) 335-2137
Email: michael.king@silvreeaglefmfg.com Email: alyson.bennett@silvreeaglefmfg.com

